

Historical Perspective on Standardized Testing for Missouri Students

Changes enacted by each entity represented below

 Federal Legislation  Board of Education  State Legislature

Federal Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) reauthorized under the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA)

2016

Missouri Learning Standards: GLEs and CLEs in English Language Arts, Mathematics, Science and Social Studies approved by Missouri State Board of Education

New Grade-Level Assessments in Mathematics and English Language Arts

New Grade-Level and EOC Assessments in Science

Statewide assessments administered but results not used for accountability due to COVID-19

New EOC Assessments in Social Studies

2016

2019

2021

2015

New Mathematics and English Language Arts MAP GLEs and EOC items provided by Smarter Balanced Assessment Consortium (SBAC)

2018

New Grade-Level and EOC Assessments in Mathematics and English Language Arts

2020

Statewide assessments cancelled due to COVID-19

2015

Missouri statute requires withdrawal from SBAC, creation of new academic standards and development of new assessments

Outstanding Schools Act (Missouri) requires development of standards and a system to measure student progress

1993

1997

Missouri Assessment Program (MAP)

2001

Federal Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) reauthorized under No Child Left Behind (NCLB) increases testing requirements

2005

Grade-Level Assessments

2004

Grade-Level Expectations (GLEs) developed with Missouri educators

2007

End-of-Course high school assessment plan approved by Missouri State Board of Education

Course-Level Expectations (CLEs) developed with Missouri educators

2009

End-of-Course Assessments (EOC)

2010

Missouri adopts the Common Core State Standards for English Language Arts and Mathematics